LIBRARY ADJUSTS SOME FEES; DVD RENTAL COST REDUCED

Effective July 1, 2011, the Baltimore County Public Library will adjust some DVD, video game and InterLibrary Loan fees.

The cost for borrowing new-to-DVD theatrical features will decrease from $2.50 for two days to $1.00 per day with a loan period of one day. The cost of extended loan fees for DVDs and video games not returned on time will decrease from $2.50 per day to $1.00 per day with a maximum extended loan of $12. The cost for borrowing a children's TV series on DVD will decrease from $2.50 for two days to free with the loan period increasing to seven days. The InterLibrary Loan handling fee will increase from $1 to $2 per item.

BCPL's entire collection of TV series DVDs, educational DVDs and classic movie DVDs can be checked out for free. The TV series DVDs and classic movie DVDs are free of charge for seven days, after which a $1.00 per day extended loan fee applies. Educational DVDs and video games can be kept for 21 days, after which the same $1 daily extended loan fee applies. All these extended loan fees have a maximum of $12.

BCPL's InterLibrary Loan service enables customers to borrow items not in the BCPL collection through an international cooperative of public and academic libraries.
