Carrie Fisher Visits BCPL in February

In February, Baltimore County Public Library will offer two exciting opportunities to see actress, screenwriter and novelist Carrie Fisher as she discusses the real-life adventures and misadventures of a true Hollywood princess – herself. On Thursday, February 2nd from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. Carrie Fisher will discuss her two books – Wishful Drinking and Shockaholic – at the Towson Branch of Baltimore County Public Library. A brief Q&A session will follow. On Thursday, February 9th, there will be a BCPL Night at the Theater in conjunction with Ms. Fisher's one-woman show Wishful Drinking at the Hippodrome Theatre. Following the show, a Talk Back session will be held with Ms. Fisher for those who purchase their tickets specifically for the BCPL Night at the Theater.

TOWSON BRANCH APPEARANCE

Tickets for Ms. Fisher's appearance at the Towson Branch will be distributed starting January 9th at 9 a.m. in the Towson Branch only, on a first-come, first-served basis. Limit of one ticket per person. This event is for ages 18 and older.

BCPL NIGHT AT THE THEATER

Tickets for the BCPL Night at the Theater can be purchased online at <http://bit.ly/BCPLFisher> using the password BCPL. Tickets are just $45 with $5 of each ticket benefiting the Foundation for Baltimore County Public Library. Service charges and handling fees may apply. The Talk Back will last approximately 30 minutes and BCPL Night at the Theater ticket-holders must check in at the registration table at the Hippodrome Theatre on the night of the performance to receive a pass for the Talk Back.

Performance is subject to change and/or cancelation without advanced notice. Special pricing is only valid thru February 5, 2012. All patrons, regardless of age, must have a ticket. Parental discretion is advised.
