

Contact: Julianne Peeling, Marketing & Development
320 York Road | Towson, MD 21204-5179 | 410-887-6196 | (f) 410-887-3304 | www.bcpl.info

February 3, 2012

FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

FREE EVENTS FOR ADULTS AT THE BALTIMORE COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

February 19 – February 25

BOOKS, COFFEE AND CONVERSATION

Gather for coffee, cookies and engaging conversation. Talk about your favorite books with other readers. Catonsville Branch, 10 a.m., Wednesday, February 22.

READERS OF THE ROUNDTABLE

Join a lively discussion of Ever by My Side by Nick Trout. Parkville Branch, 10 a.m., Tuesday, February 21.

CHAPTER FIVE BOOK CLUB

Meet new friends while sharing your impressions of The Kitchen House by Kathleen Grissom. Pikesville Branch, 7 p.m., Wednesday, February 22.

FRIENDS OF THE PIKESVILLE LIBRARY GUEST SPEAKER SERIES

Welcome Angela Roberts-Burton, park ranger at the Hampton National Historic Site, as she, in period costume, embodies "The African-American Experience at Hampton National Historic Site." Pikesville Branch, 1 p.m., Wednesday, February 22.

TOWSON BOOK CLUB

Exchange thoughts about Caleb's Crossing by Geraldine Brooks with other readers. Towson Branch, 7 p.m., Thursday, February 23.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH FILM SERIES

Celebrate Black History Month with films featuring classic and modern African-American cinema. This week, attend a screening of Their Eyes Were Watching God. Woodlawn Branch, 6 p.m., Wednesday, February 22.